

Amelia Milton

Amelia Milton is a graduate of Florida State University. She is the Deputy Director of the Department of Elder Affairs' Office of Public and Professional Guardians. She has spent her career working with elders and people with disabilities. She has held positions as a paralegal with an elder law firm that focused on guardianship and fiduciary litigation and as a training and education specialist with the Agency for Persons with Disabilities. She still works with Curva & Associates where she has worked on numerous projects promoting the independence and autonomy of people with disabilities, including the Florida Developmental Disabilities Council's Light the Way and Developing Abilities and Restoring Rights projects.