

Audrey Erhardt, J.D.

Audrey J. Ehrhardt was born in Dunedin, Florida. In 2001, she earned a Bachelor of Arts with Honors in both Classics and History with an honors-in-the-major thesis in the Classics Department (The Moral Reforms of Augustus, April 2001) at The Florida State University. In 2004, she earned her Juris Doctor from The Florida State University College of Law. While in law school, Audrey was a member of the Mock Trial Team and Phi Delta Phi (Legal Honor Society). Through the College of Law's criminal externship program, Audrey tried cases as a Certified Legal Intern for the Public Defender's Office in Quincy, Florida, during her third year of school.

After passing the Florida Bar in 2004, Audrey began practicing in an existing thirty year estate planning law practice ranging from Pinellas County north through Levy County. In October 2010, Audrey founded The Ehrhardt Elder Law Offices, P.A. She focused her practice on estate planning, trust administration, wealth preservation for high net worth families and asset protection strategies for seniors and their families using her unique "Sustainable Senior" approach to long term care. While practicing she assisted multiple clients in obtaining benefits from both the Florida Medicaid and Veteran Affairs programs.

Audrey had a radio call-in show on 1450 AM WWJB dedicated to elder law questions and answers. She was a co-author of the 3rd and 4th Editions of the Florida Senior Legal Guide and wrote for the Florida Bar Elder Law Section's publication, The Elder Law Advocate, reviewing and reporting on the Medicaid Fair Hearing determinations throughout Florida. Currently, she writes for the latter publication from a practice development and digital trends perspective. While practicing law, Audrey simultaneously owned a custom cake bakery and fondant design studio called Frosted Imagination, LLC.

Audrey sold her law practice at the beginning of 2013 to join her family who relocated a year early to Tallahassee, Florida. Audrey joined ElderCounsel, LLC, in April 2013, as the Office Management Director to develop and create said program at the company. During her legal career Audrey developed the many successful office management products the ElderCounsel Office Management members are now using in their practices. She now resides in Tallahassee, Florida, with her husband, Robert, their son, Charles, and their two dogs, India and Clinton. In her spare time, she works on a literary fiction novel, keeping plants alive and frequently updates her unpublished blog, grammiesunite.
