

CAMILLE LARSON, J.D.

Camille Larson is an Assistant Northwest Region Counsel for the Department of Children and Families. Ms. Larson received her J.D. from Emory University School of Law and her B.A. from the University of Florida.

Ms. Larson advises the Adult Protective Services units for Judicial Circuits 2 and 14. Ms. Larson works with APS investigators and counselors to ensure the safety and wellbeing of the area's most vulnerable adult populations.

Ms. Larson has litigated a number of cases to facilitate the removal of vulnerable adults from abusive and exploitative caregivers. Ms. Larson enjoys working with community partners such as the Office of Public Guardian to ensure the long-term safety of APS clients.

Prior to working with the Region Counsel's Office, Ms. Larson worked in private practice with a focus on elder law issues related to administrative and health law litigation. Ms. Larson also worked as an attorney for Children's Legal Services for the Department of Children and Families, where she advocated for the safety and wellbeing of children.
