

Michael J. McKeon, J.D.

Michael John McKeon is the Senior Attorney with the Department of Elder Affairs's Office of Public and Professional Guardians (OPPG). Prior to his work with OPPG, he litigated with the firm of Barrett, Fasig and Brooks. He is a graduate from Florida State University College of Law. Among his many responsibilities as the senior attorney, he is responsible for the discipline prosecution of professional guardians who have violated the standards of practice set by Florida law or who have abused, neglected or exploited their wards.